Got this at just past midnight aussie time.

Played only a quick game or 2.

Even with four flippers it's bloomin hard to keep the ball in play.

Like the way the middle disc lowers into the table.

Loving this game and it's tables but may I suggest one thing please.

When the ball is launched and at the immediate moment it reaches the top of tables the games is instantly placed into play mode and it looks a bit sudden.

Just an observation and I think the games would look better if that fraction of times was smoother.

Honestly value for money this is the best pinball there is and I appreciate the effort that is being put into the game.

Well done.
